October 3, 1912.

Mr. J. D. Collier,
Ponte, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I am trying to trace the family or descendants of Efford Cobb Collier, son of Robert Collier that moved from Upson County Georgia to Texas sometime during the late 40s or 50s. I think, however, it was during sometime between 1850-1860, just prior to the war between the states. I would appreciate it very much if you can give me any information regarding the descendants of this family.

Efford Collier was born in Upson County Georgia on May 4th 1811--he had brothers by the name of Robert Marshall--William Vines--Isaac Cuthbert. His father was Robert Collier that died in Upson County Georgia during the year 1850--his mother was Martha Marshall Booker and married Robert Collier on May 1st 1806.

I know there are a large number of Collier's in Texas that are descendants of Georgia families that immigrated to Texas around the 40s, 50s and 60s.

I have secured your name from Bradstreet's Reports and trust that you can furnish some information.

Very respectfully,

October 3, 1912.

Mr. D. A. Collier,
Dallis, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I am trying to trace the family or descendants of Afford Cobb Collier, son of Robert Collier that moved from Upson County, Georgia to Texas sometime during the late 40s or 50s. I think, however, it was during sometime between 1850-1860, just prior to the war between the states. I would appreciate it very much if you can give me any information regarding the descendants of this family.

Afford Collier was born in Upson County, Georgia on May 4th 1811--he had brothers by the name of Robert Marshall--William Vines--Isaac Cuthbert. His father was Robert Collier that died in Upson County, Georgia during the year 1850--his mother was Martha Marshall Booker and married Robert Collier on May 1st 1806.

I know there are a large number of Collier's in Texas that are descendants of Georgia families that immigrated to Texas around the 40s, 50s and 60s.

I have secured your name from Bradstreet's Reports and trust that you can furnish some information.

Very respectfully,

October 3, 1912.

Mr. Collier,
% Collier & Hendricks,
Waco Texas.

Dear Sir:

I am trying to trace the family or descendants of Efford Cobb Collier, son of Robert Collier that moved from Upson County, Georgia to Texas sometime during the late 40s or 50s. I think, however, it was during some-time between 1850-1860, just prior to the war between the states. I would appreciate it very much if you can give me any information regarding the descendants of this family.

Efford Collier was born in Upson County, Georgia on May 4th 1811--he had brothers by the name of Robert Marshall--William Vines--Isaac Cuthbert. His father was Robert Collier that died in Upson County, Georgia during the year 1850--his mother was Martha Marshall Booker and married Robert Collier on May 1st 1806.

I know there are a large number of Collier's in Texas that are descendants of Georgia families that immigrated to Texas around the 40s, 50s and 60s.

I have secured your name from Bradstreet's Reports and trust that you can furnish some information.

Very respectfully,

October 3, 1912.

Mr. H. V. Collier,
Waco, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I am trying to trace the family or descendants of Efford Cobb Collier, son of Robert Collier that moved from Upson County, Georgia to Texas sometime during the late 40s or 50s. I think, however, it was during sometime between 1850-1860, just prior to the war between the states. I would appreciate it very much if you can give me any information regarding the descendants of this family.

Efford Collier was born in Upson County, Georgia on May 4th 1811--he had brothers by the name of Robert Marshall--William Vines--Isaac Cuthbert. His father was Robert Collier that died in Upson County, Georgia during the year 1850--his mother was Martha Marshall Booker, and married Robert Collier on May 1st 1806.

I know there are a large number of Collier's in Texas that are descendants of Georgia families that immigrated to Texas around the 40s, 50s and 60s.

I have secured your name from Bradstreet's Reports and trust that you can furnish some information.

Very respectfully,

October 3, 1912.

Mr. J. H. Collier,
Madison, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I am trying to trace the family or descendants of Efford Cobb Collier, son of Robert Collier that moved from Upson County, Georgia to Texas sometime during the late 40s or 50s. I think, however, it was during some time between 1850-1860, just prior to the war between the states. I would appreciate it very much if you can give me any information regarding the descendants of this family.

Efford Collier was born in Upson County, Georgia on May 4th 1811--he had brothers by the name of Robert Marshall--William Vines--Isaac Cuthbert. His father was Robert Collier that died in Upson County, Georgia during the year 1850--his mother was Martha Marshall Booker, and married Robert Collier on May 1st, 1806.

I know there are a large number of Collier's in Texas that are descendants of Georgia families that immigrated to Texas around the 40s, 50s and 60s.

I have secured your name from Bradstreet's Reports and trust that you can furnish some information.

Very respectfully,

October 3, 1912.

Mr. T. P. Collier,
Waco, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I am trying to trace the family or descendants of Gfford Cobb Collier, son of Robert Collier that moved from Upson County, Georgia to Texas sometime during the last 40s or 50s. I think, however, it was during sometime between 1850-1860, just prior to the war between the states. I would appreciate it very much if you can give me any information regarding the descendants of this family.

Gfford Collier was born in Upson County, Georgia on May 4th 1811--he had brothers by the name of Robert Marshall--William Vines--Isaac Guthber. His father was Robert Collier that died in Upson County, Georgia during the year 1850--his mother was Martha Marshall Booker, and married Robert Collier on May 1st 1806.

I know there are a large number of Collier's in Texas that are descendants of Georgia families that immigrated to Texas around the 40s, 50s and 60s.

I have secured your name from Bradstreet's Reports and trust that you can furnish some information.

Very respectfully,

October 3, 1912.

Mr. William Collier,
Palmer, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I am trying to trace the family or descendants of Efford Cobb Collier, son of Robert Collier that moved from Upson County, Georgia to Texas sometime during the late 40s or 50s. I think, however, it was during sometime between 1850-1860, just prior to the war between the states. I would appreciate it very much if you can give me any information regarding the descendants of this family.

Efford Collier was born in Upson County, Georgia on May 4th 1811--he had brothers by the name of Robert Marshall--William Vines--Isaac Cuthbert. His father was Robert Collier that died in Upson County, Georgia during the year 1850--his mother was Martha Marshall Booker, and married Robert Collier on May 1st 1806.

I know there are a large number of Collier's in Texas that are descendants of Georgia families that immigrated to Texas around the 40s, 50s and 60s.

I have secured your name from Bradstreet's Reports and trust that you can furnish some information.

Very respectfully,

October 3, 1912.

Mr. J. R. Collier,
Munford, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I am trying to trace the family or descendants of Efford Cobb Collier, son of Robert Collier that moved from Upson County, Georgia to Texas sometime during the late 40s or 50s. I think, however, it was during sometime between 1856-1860, just prior to the war between the states. I would appreciate it very much if you can give me any information regarding the descendants of this family.

Efford Collier was born in Upson County, Georgia on May 4th 1811--he had brothers by the name of Robert Marshall--William Vines--Isaac Cuthbert. His father was Robert Collier that died in Upson County, Georgia during the year 1850--his mother was Martha Marshall Booker, and married Robert Collier on May 1st 1806.

I know there are a large number of Collier's in Texas that are descendants of Georgia families that immigrated to Texas around the 40s, 50s and 60s.

I have secured your name from Bradstreet's Reports and trust that you can furnish some information.

Very respectfully,

October 3, 1912.

Mr. A. J. Collier,
Hamilton, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I am trying to trace the family or descendants of Efford Cobb Collier, son of Robert Collier that moved from Upson County, Georgia to Texas sometime during the late 40s or 50s. I think, however, it was during some time between 1850-1860, just prior to the war between the states. I would appreciate it very much if you can give me any information regarding the descendants of this family.

Efford Collier was born in Upson County, Georgia on May 4th 1811--he had brothers by the name of Robert Marshall--William Vines--Isaac Cuthbert. His father was Robert Collier that died in Upson County, Georgia during the year 1850--his mother was Martha Marshall Booker, and married Robert Collier on May 1st 1806.

I know there are a large number of Collier's in Texas that are descendants of Georgia families that immigrated to Texas around the 40s, 50s and 60s.

I have secured your name from Bradstreet's Reports and trust that you can furnish some information.

Very respectfully,

October 3, 1912.

Mr. D. D. Collier,
Haskell, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I am trying to trace the family or descendants of Mfford Cobb Collier, son of Robert Collier that moved from Upson County, Georgia to Texas sometime during the late 40s or 50s. I think, however, it was during some time between 1850-1860, just prior to the war between the states. I would appreciate it very much if you can give me any information regarding the descendants of this family.

Mfford Collier was born in Upson County, Georgia on May 4th 1811--he had brothers by the name of Robert Marshall--William Vines--Isaac Cuthbert. His father was Robert Collier that died in Upson County, Georgia during the year 1850--his mother was Martha Marshall Booker, and married Robert Collier On May 1st 1806.

I know there are a large number of Collier's in Texas that are descendants of Georgia families that immigrated to Texas around the 40s, 50s or 60s.

I have secured your name from Bradstreet's Reports and trust that you can furnish some information.

Very respectfully,

October 3, 1912.

Mr. J. P. Collier,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I am trying to trace the family or descendants of Efford Cobb Collier, son of Robert Collier that moved from Upson County, Georgia to Texas sometime during the late 40s or 50s. I think, however, it was during sometime between 1850-1860, just prior to the war between the states. I would appreciate it very much if you can give me any information regarding the descendants of this family.

Efford Collier was born in Upson County, Georgia on May 4th 1811--he had brothers by the name of Robert Marshall--William Vines--Isaac Cuthbert. His father was Robert Collier that died in Upson County, Georgia during the year 1850--his mother was Martha Marshall Booker and married Robert Collier on May 1st 1806.

I know there are a large number of Colliers in Texas that are descendants of Georgia families that immigrated to Texas around the 40s, 50s and 60s.

I have secured your name from Bradstreet's Reports and trust that you can furnish some information.

Very respectfully,

October 3, 1912.

The Collier Gin Co.,
Farmersville, Texas.

Dear Sirs:

I am trying to trace the family or descendants of Efford Cobb Collier, son of Robert Collier, that moved from Upson County, Georgia to Texas sometime during the late 40s or 50s. I think, however, it was during sometime between 1850-1860, just prior to the war between the states. I would appreciate it very much if you can give me any information regarding the descendants of this family.

Efford Collier was born in Upson County, Georgia on May 4th 1811--he had brothers by the name of Robert Marshall--William Vines--Isaac Cuthbert. His father was Robert Mallier that died in Upson County, Georgia during the year 1850--his mother was Martha Marshall Booker and married Robert Collier on May 1st 1866.

I know there are a large number of Collier's in Texas that are descendants of Georgia families that immigrated to Texas around the 40s, 50s and 60s.

I have secured your name from Bradstreet's Reports and trust that you can furnish some information.

Very respectfully,